NO UNIVERSITY FOR ATLANTA.

Proposition is Voted Down by the Presbyterian General Assembly.

The southern Presbyterian general assembly adjourned at Fort Worth, Texas, late Thursday night, without having taken a vote on the question of federation with other branches of the Presbyterian church, nearly all the evening session having been taken up by an argument by Dr. C.
R. Hemphill of Louisville, Ky., Dr.
Hemphill spoke for an hour and a half on the subject, favoring co-operation.

A committee report recommending the establishment of a university for the southern church, at Atlanta, Georgia, was voted down during the day.

The principal feature of the morning session was a discussion of the project of establishing a university for the entire southern church at Atlanta.

The theory of those who opposed adopting the favorable report of the committee was that such an institution should have more than $1,000,000 to start on, and that if there is to be a school for higher education, that one of the existing schools should be chosen rather than build a new one.

The question was finally settled by an amendment being offered to the effect that the general assembly does not see its way clear to undertake such an enterprise, but, at the same time, appreciates the work of those who have been pushing the question and wishes them success in their undertaking provided they choose to carry it on independent of the general assembly for the sake of the synod or the section of country immediately surrounding Atlanta. There were many commissioners who stood firm for the proposed institution, but these were outnumbered two to one when the final vote was taken.

BOSTON BANKERS GO TO WALL.

Burnett Cummins & Company Forced to Close With Heavy Liabilities.

Burnett Cummins & Co., bankers, at Boston, failed Thursday. The liabilities amount to $1,700,000.

The statement filed with the court shows that many banks in the state are among the creditors. The largest claim of this kind is that of the Worcester Five-Cent Savings bank for $30-600. Other bank creditors are the Danvers savings bank for $26,721; the Millbury savings bank, $26,666; the City national bank of Lynn, $19,789; the Newton savings bank, $35,154, and the International Trust company of Boston for $44,495.

MAY JAIL LEADERS.

Heads of Unions in Chicago to Be Arraigned for Contempt--Strike Still Spreads.

Final rejection of union teamsters' demands, especially those of the express drivers, was officially announced at Chicago Wednesday by the employers. The employers demand unconditional surrender. The employers sent their goods all over the city under police protection without encountering violence.

The strike in the lumber yards spread with great rapidity and nearly all lumber business is at a standstill. Some few lumber yards are still in operation, but their volume of business is small. A number of planing mill and sash and door factories will be compelled to close entirely if the supply of lumber is not largely increased. One cause for the lack of energy on the part of the employers in the lumber yards during the day was that the city was unable to afford drivers police protection. Mayor Dunne provided against this contingency by issuing a call for 1,000 extra police, who will be sworn in as soon as applications are filed by suitable men. This will be the second 1,000 extra policemen sworn in since the beginning of the strike. Sheriff Barrett also swore in several hundred deputies, the largest number at any one time since the strike began.

President C. P. Shea of the teamsters' union, James B. Barry, business agent of the express drivers' union; Bernard Mulligan, president of the express drivers' union, and John H. Donahue, a member of the express drivers' union, will appear before Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States court. Attorney Mayer, acting for the employers' association, will ask that the men be sent to jail on a charge of contempt of court in refusing to answer questions before Master in Chancery Sherman, which questions they had previously been ordered to answer by the court.

Twelve Indicted for Murder.

The grand jury indicted twelve men in connection with the death of Chas.
Carlstrom, the member of the carriage makers' union, who died as the result of the beating he received at the hands of thugs, hired by the officials of the union, according to their own story.

The indicted men are George Meller, formerly president of the union; Henry J. Neuman, secretary; Chas.
J. Casey, business agent; six members of the executive committee of the union, and Charles Gilhooley, Marcus Looney and Edward Feeley, the three men who, it is alleged, were hired by the officials of the union to beat men who did not go on strike or took the strikers' places.

The indictments charge manslaughter and conspiracy to commit bodily injury. The autopsy showed that the death of Carlstrom was due directly to pneumonia. The physicians declared that the disease was probably the result of injuries he received, but it was no the direct cause of death, and the men could not, therefore, be charged with murder.

DOORS OF OHIO BANK CLOSED.

Cashier Loaned Vice President of Institution Too Much of the Cash.

The Canton state bank, at Canton, Ohio, with individual deposits of more than $600,000, closed its doors Wednesday. The failure was brought about by heavy loans to W. T. Davis, vice president of the bank, by the cashier, C. B. Bachtell, without the consent of the other directors.

NOT WILLING TO TAKE A HAND.

President Averse to Being Mixed Up in Insurance Company Row.

An effort was made Wednesday, at Washington, to induce President Roosevelt to take an interest in the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance society. Clarence Whitman, president of the Merchants' Association of New York, had a conference with the president on the subject, but was given little encouragement.

SLEW FAMILY AND SUICIDED

California Man Kills Wife, Five Children and Himself.

WENT SUDDENLY INSANE

Incidentally, He Fired Upon a Passing Milkman--Home Presented a Ghastly Sight.

Edwin Steppens, living at Ross Valley, Marion county, California, murdered his wife, shot his five children, three of whom died instantly, attempted to murder a passing milkman, and then ended his own life, Wednesday morning.

Steppens, who was 35 years old, was formerly a book agent, but later was said to be connected with a rubber goods house of San Francisco.
The family also conducted a chicken ranch at their home in Ross Valley.
Early Wednesday morning Steppens emerged from the house, revolver in hand, and fired upon a passing milkman. The milkman whipped up his horses and Steppens pursued him for two hundred yards, firing as he ran.
Steppens then halted in the roadway, placed the revolver to his breast, discharged the weapon. The bullet did not end his life, and he sent a second fatal bullet through his brain.

When neighbors and officers entered the home of Steppens, they came upon a shocking scene. The members of the family, each with a revolver wound in the head, were found in their beds. The wife and three of the children were dead, while two wounded children died a few hours later at a hospital. The children ranged from one to eleven years of age.

There is no known reason for the tragedy, but the theory is advanced that Steppens became suddenly insane.

ANOTHER RUSSIAN OFFICIAL SLAIN.

Bomb-Thrower Terminates Career of the Governor of Baku, Caucasus.

The governor of Baku, Caucasus, Prince Nakachidza, was assassinated Wednesday afternoon, by a bomb which was thrown at his carriage. A lieutenant, who was accompanying the governor, and a bystander were also killed by the explosion, and the coachman is believed to have been fatally injured.

Though no details of the assassination were received in St. Petersburg, it is thought that the outrage was the work of the Armenian revolutionary committee, in revenge, for the attitude taken by the prince during the racial war between Armenians and Tartars in February last, and is not attributed to the Russian terrorists, even though the latter are at present extremely active in many parts of the empire.

The Armenians laid the responsibility for the deaths of those slain in February at the door of Prince Nakachidza, and only Tuesday suit was begun against the prince before the senate tribunal at St. Petersburg in behalf of the children of Lalaleff, a Baku millionaire, whose house was stormed and burned, and himself and wife and parents killed during the riot.

BRYAN AGAIN APPEARS IN COURT.

Lawyer of Widow Bennett Irritates Him by Rapid Fire Questions.

William J. Bryan appeared in the probate court at New Haven, Conn., Wednesday, at a hearing on the accounts of the estate of the late Phil-S. Bennett, of which he is administrator.

During the examination Mr. Bryan submitted to a rapid fire of questions from Judge Stoddard, counsel for Mrs.
Bennett, the widow, and at times considerable impatience was manifested by both questioner and the witness.
